CORAM: S.C.DHARMADHIARI J.
20th December, 2007

P.C.

1. When this matter was placed before the Court, a statement was made that a sum of Rs.4,10,000/- has already been paid in pursuance of the recovery certificate. The matter was adjourned to enable the parties to take instructions.

2. On the last occasion, an offer was made by the petitioner to pay a further sum of Rs.1,00,000/- and that the same be accepted in full and final settlement by respondent no.3, was his request. Respondent no.3 as also the petitioner have instructed their respective Advocates to accept the proposal and put an end to the matter. Accordingly, if the petitioner pays a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- within a period of six weeks from today, respondent no.3 to accept the same in full and final settlement of all his claims and thereafter release the no due certificate in favour of the petitioner. In default the petition stands dismissed. The impugned order stands confirmed and recovery certificate then can be enforced in accordance with law. Petition is disposed of.
